Educational Opportunities

UC San Diego Extension
Why Take Classes as an Adult?

Understand current industry situations and trends

Learn from instructors who are experts in their field

Use real, practical information in your job and career

Help prepare for qualifying career examinations

Increase your earning potential and marketability
UCSD Extension was originally the “Extension” for UCLA

UCSD founded in 1960

UCSD Extension began offering Facility Management courses circa mid-80’s
2011 Sample Student Enrollments

54 – HVAC Systems Design
144 – Sustainable Business Practices
450 – Project Management

24+ Instructors

Courses offered online and in classrooms
Professional Certificate Programs

Facilities Management

Project Management

Real Estate

Sustainable Business Practices

UC San Diego Extension
Professional Certificate in Facility Management

Required Classes:

- Principles of FM
- Real Estate Property Management
- Planning & Project Management for Facility Managers
Choose 15 units from elective courses offered in these areas:

(7) Facilities Management
(5) Sustainability
(5) Business
Sample Courses

HVAC Systems Design
Introduction to Sustainability
Building Systems and Technology
Documentation and Processing of LEED Projects
Business Law for Managers
Business Communication Skills
UCSD Program Rep

Jeanmarie Bond

Business Science and Technology Dept.

Drawing for Free Class

Thank you!